Cadet Nathan G. Stackhouse Jr., 22, son of Mrs. Anna Abel, 1604 S. Catalina Ave., is receiving six weeks of training at the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) summer camp at Fort Lewis, Wash. The training is scheduled to be concluded July 28.

Cadet Stackhouse, who was graduated from Upper Darby (Pa.) High School in 1956, is a student at the University of California at Davis.

His father lives on Salem Pike, Swedesboro, N.J.

Cadet Gerald F. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Roberts, 1225 Hickory, is receiving six weeks of training at the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) summer camp at Fort Lewis, Wash. The training is scheduled to be completed July 28.

The 20-year-old cadet is a 1958 graduate of Torrance High School, a member of Sigma Pi fraternity, and is attending Oregon State University at Corvallis.

Serving with the Third Marine Division in Okinawa in the Pacific are Marines Pfc. Robert J. Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Meyers of 21418 Evalyn Ave.; Pfc. David L. Weddle, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Weddle of 18926 Cordary Ave.; Pfc. John E. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess C. Mitchell of 1008 W. 208th St.; and Pfc. Charles M. Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Gibson of 20848 Dalton Ave.

The division recently returned to Okinawa after completing their phase in the largest combined amphibious-landing assault in the history of the South East Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO).

The exercise, dubbed "Pony Express," combined British Royal Marines, Royal Australian Infantry, Royal Thai Marines, Filipino underwater demolition teams and the Third Marine Division.

The expeditionary brigade of SEATO, launched its "assault" in the Kota Belud area of North Borneo.

Serving at the North Island Naval Air Station, San Diego, is John W. Blodgett, airman, USN, son of Mrs. Naomi Atchison of 5306 Carson St.

San Diego serves as home port for many vessels of the powerful Pacific Fleet and as home base for numerous Navy fighter and bomber squadrons.

Marine Pvc. Roger A. Kahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Kahl of 18002 Bailey Dr., is scheduled to complete a four-week individual combat training course, June 30, with the Second Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Each marine receives the instruction upon completion of recruit training to insure his proficiency in the latest infantry tactics, scouting and patrolling, first-aid, map-reading, mine warfare and defensive positions.

Serving at the Naval Air Station, Atsugi, Japan, is Glen A. Shelden, construction man, USN, son of Mrs. Betty B. Aspinall of 2424 Arlington Ave.

The station is the only naval air station on Japan and is headquarters for Commander, Fleet Air Western Pacific.

Serving aboard the seaplane tender Pine Island is Lawrence C. Quignon, fire control technician second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Quignon of 1641 W. 216th St.

The Pine Island periodically operates with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific, as flagship for Commander, U.S. Taiwan Patrol Force, as well as fulfilling her mission as a mobile base in support of long-range reconnaissance and anti-submarine warfare seaplanes.

Cadet Ronald A. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Harris, 337 Calle Miramar, is receiving six weeks of training at the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) summer camp at Fort Lewis, Wash. The training is scheduled to be concluded July 28.

During this training Cadet Harris is receiving practical experience and instruction in tactical, technical and administrative subjects, with special emphasis placed on the duties of a second lieutenant in an infantry unit.

The 22-year-old cadet is a student at San Jose State College. He is a 1958 graduate of Menlo Atherton High School, Atherton.

Cadet David P. Koshoff, 21, whose wife, Juanita, lives on Route 1, San Luis Obispo, is receiving six weeks of training at the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) summer camp at Fort Lewis, Wash. The training is scheduled to be completed July 28.

Cadet Koshoff is a student at California State Polytechnic College and a member of the Scabbard Blade society and Tau Sigma fraternity. He was graduated from Narbonne High School in Lomita in 1957. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kosoff, live at 26338 President, Harbor City.

Local Army reservist Edward M. Nels, 5009 Merrill St., a member of the 368th Transportation Command (Terminal "C"), U.S. Army Reserve Unit, reported to the U.S. Naval Amphibious Base, Coronado, Calif., on the 18th of June, 1961, for two weeks active duty, according to Colonel Philip J. Donovan, Commanding.

Nels and the other 296 officers and enlisted men of his unit, are performing amphibious maneuvers, supported by the Navy and Marines, learning and practicing their skills in putting men and materials across the beach. This will be the unit's seventh year of amphibious training.

Nels is a Staff Sergeant assigned to the Medical section of the unit, working as a personnel supervisor. In civilian life he is a salesman for the Gerber Products Co.

Fourteen students representing the Navy, Coast Guard and Marine Corps were graduated with honors, June 16, from the Naval Justice School at Newport, R.I. Among the honor graduates was Donald W. Ferrer, yeoman second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie A. Ferrer of 18529 Amie Ave.

The seven-week period of instruction emphasized study of the Uniform Code of Military Justice.

Dr. Michael Francis Walsh, Commissioner of Education for the State of Rhode Island, addressed the students during the formal graduation exercises.

A seven-day visit to Hong Kong ended, June 17, for crewmen of the attack aircraft carrier USS Bon Homme Richard which is operating as a unit of the Seventh Fleet in the western Pacific.

Serving aboard the mighty "Bonnie Dick" are Albert L. Heptig, airman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack T. Heptig of 5339 Bindewald Rd., and Dennis D. West, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. West of 21900 Martin St.

While in the British Crown Colony, known as the "Pearl of the Orient," crewmen were given the opportunity to spend many hours sightseeing in the historic Oriental seaport.

The 42,000-ton Bon Homme Richard departed San Diego, April 26, to join the Seventh Fleet's operational force.

Two soldiers from Torrance, Pvt. Ronald L. Henderson and Recruit William J. Wicks, completed the automotive maintenance helper course at Ford Ord, Calif., June 23.

They completed basic training at Ford Ord.

Henderson, 22-year-old son of Mrs. Opal C. Lambert, 24707 Winlock Dr., attended Washington High school.

Wicks, 20, son of Mrs. Eleanor G. McLellan, 4001 Bluff St., is a 1959 graduate of North High school, attended El Camino Junior college, and was employed by the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in Redding before entering the Army.
